

Mostwell's Cliff Nakayama resigns from DIAS Holding Board- Concentrates on Clean Energy

LOS ALTOS, CA – August 24, 2010 – Mostwell International LLC announced today that its managing director, Cliff Nakayama, has resigned from the Board of Directors of DIAS Holding, Inc.

“After helping them achieve success in the U.S. earlier this decade, it is time for me to place my efforts in other areas,” stated Mr. Nakayama. Most recently, he continues his role on the Board of Directors for the U.S.-China Green Energy Council, a non-profit organization dedicated to encouraging collaboration in clean energy between two great nations, and leads the transportation industry working group.

“We had a very successful annual conference in Shanghai and Suzhou this past June where I organized and moderated two panels with experts from the electric vehicle industry, including executives from OEMs, innovative battery developers, and system integrators from the USA, China and Japan. It is my intent to continue the Council’s work in this important area,” he concluded.
